

Plato Bibliography 2006-2007

by Luc Brisson with the assistance of Frédéric Plin, CNRS Paris

Bibliographie Platonicienne 2006-2007

par Luc Brisson avec la collaboration de Frédéric Plin, CNRS Paris

This bibliography, based on a Lustrum-type model, consists of two lists: a list of the editions and translations of Plato's works, and a list of titles of studies on Plato and his works, arranged according to the alphabetical order of their author's name. These lists are preceded by a complete directory of sources – periodicals, proceedings, studies in honor of and collections – enabling the reader to precisely locate all listed articles. This bibliography does not, however, include commentaries, a directory of critical reviews nor an analytical Index. Nonetheless, we trust that in its present state this work will prove useful to the members of the International Plato Society. Our goal, that of my assistant and myself, was twofold: establish the most complete and accurate list of works, published in 2006 and 2007 on Plato and his works; take into account all those earlier studies not mentioned in the International Plato Society's previous bibliographies. We hope these directions in English will simplify the use of this bibliography produced in French. We would like to express our gratitude to Michael Chase, who allowed us to consult the proofs of volume 76 of l'Année Philologique and to Yuji Kurihara, who provided us with a bibliography of works on Plato published in Japanese in 2006-2007. We would like to thank Michael Chase, Michel Christiansen and Wilfried Kühn for checking the accuracy of the references. Any mistakes published, however, remain our responsibility. We gratefully receive any comments or corrections our readers might suggest. We trust as well that the next edition of that bibliography will follow as scheduled.

N.B. For ancient Greek, we have used the following system of transliteration. Greek letters are written in Roman letters according to this system: eta = ē; omega = ō; dzeta = z; theta = th; xi = x; phi = ph; khi = kh; psi = ps. Iota subscript is written after the letter (for example ēi, but if is an alpha (which in this case only is a long vowel) with a subscript iota = ai), rough breathings are written as h, and smooth breathings are not noted. All accents are noted.

Cette bibliographie, réalisée sur le modèle de celles de Lustrum, se réduit à deux listes: une liste des éditions et traductions des œuvres de Platon, et une liste de titres de travaux sur Platon et sur ses œuvres, classées par ordre alphabétique des noms d'auteur. Ces listes sont précédées d'un inventaire complet des sources: périodiques, actes de congrès, mélanges, recueils, inventaire auquel on se reportera pour localiser avec précision tous les articles énumérés. Cette bibliographie ne comprend cependant ni commentaire ni inventaire de comptes rendus ni Index analytique. Nous espérons que, dans l'état où il se trouve, ce travail sera utile aux membres de la Société Platonicienne Internationale. Notre but, à mon collaborateur et à moi-même, a été de dresser la liste la plus complète et la plus précise possible des travaux sur Platon et sur ses œuvres publiés en 2006 et en 2007. Il a cependant été tenu compte de tous les travaux antérieurs non mentionnés dans les précédentes bibliographies. Nous tenons à exprimer notre gratitude à l'égard de Michael Chase qui nous, qui nous a permis de consulter les épreuves du fascicule 76 de l'Année Philologique. Par ailleurs, Yuji Kurihara nous a fourni une bibliographie des travaux sur Platon publiés en japonais en 2006-2007 ; nous lui exprimons aussi notre gratitude. Nous voulons enfin remercier Michael Chase, Michel Christiansen et Wilfried Kühn qui ont vérifié l'exactitude des références. Les erreurs qui subsistent relèvent de notre responsabilité. Nous aimerions que les lecteurs nous signalent ces erreurs et nous fassent des remarques critiques en vue d'améliorer notre travail. Nous espérons pouvoir réaliser une prochaine bibliographie dans les délais.

N.B. Pour le Grec ancien, nous avons utilisé le système de translittération suivant: êta = e; oméga = o; dzèta = z; thèta = th; xi = x; phi = ph; khi = kh; psi = ps. L'iota souscrit est adscrit (par exemple ei); et lorsqu'il s'agit d'un alpha, cet alpha est long = ai). L'esprit rude est noté h, et l'esprit doux n'est pas noté. Tous les accents sont notés.
